

Hello! We are sending our greetings from Croatia! Our missions team here just finished up a “church projects workday” this morning /afternoon at the church. For us living in a culture that is so different than our own, and which doesn’t lend itself to a normal flow and ebb of life, it was sort of fun to participate in such a normal activity like cleaning and fixing up the church.

We sure do appreciate the love you have continued to show us through your support of our ministry here. Thank you in particular for your giving this last month of April. We are truly grateful!

We are thankful for your prayers as well. We literally live day to day on the prayers of our support team. Thank you. I know I have mentioned to you in a few emails about our First Friday Prayer Experience. Well, the first Friday in May is officially upon us, so I am sending you the attachment that list the prayer requests all across Europe, including Croatia. We would love to invite you to participate in lifting these requests to our Lord this weekend.

One request that isn’t mentioned on the list for Croatia is for a Family Life Conference our church is hosting this Saturday. 4 staff members representing Family Life Ministries from Zagreb will come and present a seminar focusing on communication in marriage. They will additionally present the gospel through their seminar. Please pray that those friends and family members of those in our church will attend and then also that God will touch their hearts during the presentation.

Please specifically be in prayer for our Pastor and his family as they arrive tomorrow and re-adjust to live and ministry in Split! Pray for the church leadership as they begin to meet with Pastor Zdenko again and prayerfully consider the future of the church.

We would love to hear from you anytime. Thank you once again for all that you do for us.

Serving Him together,

Wendy England (for the rest of us)
