David, a Savior, who is Christ the King!”

Luke 2:11

10 December 2010

“Happy Christmas, and a Prosperous New Year”, as we say in Zambia. We pray that you are surrounded by your loved ones, whether in memory or in person, as you celebrate the birth of our beloved Savior, Jesus the Christ, Messiah, Almighty God, Wonderful, Counselor, Creator, God who became man.

It has been a wild ride this holiday season so far. We have witnessed my Dad, LD Kruger, leaving this world and beginning his next chapter of life with Christ; seen Andrew Wilson, our newest grand-nephew and miracle child; witnessed the wedding of our niece and new nephew Kimberly Kruger and Vinnie Casanova; moved my mother, Nell Kruger, to her new apartment in assisted living, visited with Butch’s parents in Memphis and on top of it all, managed to see a beautiful Christmas Program at Houston First Baptist (I cried and got so homesick for Africa during the drums solo) and finally were able to attend church with our friends at Encourager in Houston. It has been a whirlwind of numerous and varied memories we will treasure.

This month Butch and I celebrate 20 years of marriage. It was so wonderful that during Kimberly and Vinnie’s wedding, we renewed our vows. Shout out to Butch...I love you, Babe. You are the man of my dreams and the love of my life! Happy Anniversary.

As we close this year with a visit to McGregor and time with Mom in Houston, we look forward to sharing the teaching of The Elijah Challenge in Virginia at Roanoke and Parkway Wesleyan churches, visit with friends in Alabama and Florida. We are grateful for the opportunities to share what is going on in Zambia and with Light of Africa. If you would like to have us share with your small group, Bible study, Sunday school class or church, please feel free to contact us as soon as possible as time is drawing short for our furlough in the USA.
